RED PLANTS—OWN-ROOT ROSES

February 15th to April 1st. (Roots peeled and plants well hardened first.) Roots puddled.

Soft wood gathered from field in late summer and rooted in closed beds. Shipments
A FEW GOOD THINGS

Fort Worth, Texas, March 21, 1919.
Howard Rose Company,
Hemet, California

"Gentlemen:—The Roses we got from you were very satisfactory. They arrived in A-1 condition and grew very nice though we got ours late, etc.—"

Yours very truly,

Wenatchee, Wash., March 27, 1919.
Howard Rose Company,
Hemet, California

"Gentlemen:—In answer to yours of the 22nd. We are pleased to state that the rooted Roses, from beds, reached us in good shape and were more than satisfactory to us and this spring they are in fine shape, etc.—"

Yours truly,

Stockton, Cal., March 27, 1919.
Howard Rose Company,
Hemet, California

"Gentlemen:—In reply to your favor of March 22nd would say that the rooted Roses from beds you sent us last year arrived in good condition and were very satisfactory. We are sorry that you did not have any to offer this year as we found it a very good investment, etc.—"

Yours truly,

Lubbock, Texas, March 27, 1919.
Howard Rose Company,
Hemet, California

"Gentlemen:—In reply to your request will say that the Rose cuttings reached us in fine condition and we were well pleased with the results even through the most extensive drouth I ever experienced. We had good success and have look-for your ad to come out this spring, etc.—"

Yours truly,

Clayton, Mo., March 26, 1919.
Howard Rose Company,
Hemet, California

"Gentlemen:—We are in receipt of your favor of March 21st, and beg to assure you that the young Roses which we received from you last spring have been most satisfactory."

Yours very truly,

Ashley, Ill., March 31, 1919.
Howard Rose Company,
Hemet, California

"Dear Sir:—In reply to yours of the 22nd will say: The Roses were a good quality and when they arrived, the foliage had become so dry that most of it dropped off while planting them, but most of them lived and promise to yield us a nice crop of Roses this year, etc.—"

Very truly,
